there the gallant and the free, In his o-cean bed lies low-ly.

Down, down a-mid the deep, That oft in tri-umph calando. bore him, He sleeps, he sleeps, he sleeps a sound and pleas-ant sleep, With the salt waves wash-ing o'er him.

He sleeps se - rene and safe, From tem - pest and from Sleep on thou gallant dead! A glo - rious tomb they've hil - low, When storms that high a - bove him chafe, Searse found thee, The broad blue heav'n's a - bove thee spread, The rock his peaceful pil - low. The sea and him in boundless wa - ters round thee! No vul - gar foot treads death They did not dare to sev - er, It here, No hand pro - fane shall move thee, con spirito. But was his home, it was his home while gal - lant fleets, but gal - lant fleets shall he had breath, 'Tis now his rest..... for e - ver.

 proud - ly steer, And war - riors shout a - bove thee!
